Numb. 5385

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday November 26. to Tuesday November 29. 1715.

S*T. James's, November* 28. The following Addreſs has been preſented to His Majeſty.

An humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the Town and Pariſh of Cheſham in the County of Bucks; preſented to His Majeſty by Richard Hampden, Eſq;

Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Dublin Nov. 19. On the 15th the Houſe of Commons of this Kingdom ordered Heads to be brought in of a Bill to attaint James Butler late Duke of Ormond of High-Treaſon, and to veſt his Eſtate in the Crown; and a Clauſe to be inſerted in it, for giving a Reward to any Perſon who ſhall apprehend the ſaid James Butler, in caſe he attempts to Land in any part of this Kingdom. The Houſe likewiſe ordered Heads to be brought in of a Bill for the further Security of His Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and for extinguiſhing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, and his open and ſecret Abettors. And alſo Reſolved, Nemine Contradicente, That whoever adviſ'd the late Queen to Prorogue the late Parliament in this Kingdom, at a Time when a Bill to attaint the Pretender was under the Conſideration of the Houſe of Commons, was an Enemy to the Succeſſion as by Law Eſtabliſh'd in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hannover, to the Proteſtant Intereſt of this Kingdom, and a Favourer of the Pretender and Popery. On the 16th the Houſe read thrice, and paſſed, Nemine Contradicente, a Bill ſent down to them from the Lords, intitled, An Act for Recognizing His Majeſty's Title to the Throne of Great Britain, France and Ireland.

To their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellencies,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, with great Satisfaction heard the many Expreſſions of his Majeſty's Gracious Intentions towards his faithful Subjects of this Kingdom, contained in your Excellencies Speech in the Houſe of Peers at the opening of this Parliament.

Nothing is of equal Concern to us with the Preſervation of our moſt excellent Conſtitution in Church and State, nothing can more endear his Majeſty's Perſon and Government to us, than the many Proofs which he has already given of his Care for it, and the frequent Declarations made by his Majeſty, That he will always inviolably Maintain and Support it.

Theſe Gracious Inſtances of his Piety and Goodneſs, and the Benefits which redound to this Nation from his Majeſty's Care and Protection of our Religious and Civil Rights, call for all Returns which Loyal and Grateful Subjects can make to the beſt of Princes, for a ready and quiet Submiſſion to his mild and gentle Government, a cheerful Diſpoſition to ſupport and make eaſie his Adminiſtration of the Publick Affairs, and a firm Reſolution to Defend his Majeſty's Rightful and Lawful Title to the Crown of theſe Realms, againſt the Pretender and all his Adherents and Abettors.

And as the wicked Rebellion which now rages in his Majeſty's Kingdom of Great Britain, ſhews, That the Enemies of our Peace are joined together in the Bands of Iniquity, we promiſe to uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to Unite and Confirm all his Majeſty's Subjects of this Realm, in their Duty to ſupport his Majeſty's Title and Government, and to give his Majeſty all further Proofs of the ſtrongeſt Affection and Fidelity to his Sacred Perſon and Authority.

We ſhall ever acknowledge it as a great Inſtance of his Majeſty's Affection to and Care of this his Kingdom, That he has been pleaſed to make us happy in ſending Perſons every way ſo well qualified as your Excellencies are to Execute ſo high a Truſt: And we aſſure your Excellencies, That we will give the utmoſt Diſpatch to the Publick Buſineſs, and retain a grateful Senſe of your Excellencies readineſs expreſſed in your Speech, to concur with us in every thing that may be advantageous to this Kingdom: What Advice we ſhall at any time offer ſhall be with that Duty that is owing to ſo Good and Gracious a King as we are bleſſed with, and with that Reſpect that is due to ſuch Wiſe and Vigilant Governors.

Their

Their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices Anſwer.

My Lords,

WE are glad to find the Aſſurances we have given your Lordſhips in his Majeſty's Name are ſo acceptable to you, and we are obliged to your Lordſhips for your Reſolution to ſupport our Adminiſtration; and our beſt Endeavours ſhall never be wanting to promote the Welfare of this Kingdom.

To their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices General and General Governors of Ireland.

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellencies,

WE His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of Ireland in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to attend your Excellencies with our humble Thanks for your Speech to both Houſes of Parliament.

The Aſſurances your Excellencies have given us of his Majeſty's Reſolution inviolably to preſerve our Conſtitution in Church and State, claim the moſt grateful Acknowledgments which a dutiful and affectionate People can make to the beſt of Princes, who in Addition to the many Favours already conferr'd on his Proteſtant Subjects of this Kingdom, has been pleas'd in a particular Manner to conſult their Happineſs and Security by committing (at this critical Juncture) the Government thereof to your Excellencies.

The Manner in which your Excellencies are pleas'd to take Notice of the early and ſteady Zeal ſhewn by his Majeſty's Proteſtant Subjects of this Kingdom for his Succeſſion when moſt in Danger, gives us the greateſt Pleaſure and Satisfaction, having from thence Reaſon to hope the Endeavours uſed by the Commons in the laſt Parliament to ſupport that Succeſſion againſt the Pretender and his Abettors, have not been unknown or unacceptable to our gracious Sovereign: And when we conſider the Happineſs which every Part of his Dominions enjoys under his auſpicious Reign our Surprize and Indignation are equally rais'd, to think there can a Set of Men be found among us ſo deſperately wicked, as to attempt to deprive us of ſo ineſtimable a Bleſſing.

We have a juſt Senſe of his Majeſty's Goodneſs, in cauſing Arms to be deliver'd out of the Stores for the Militia, which we beg your Excellencies to be aſſur'd ſhall be employ'd in the Preſervation of his Title and Government, and that we will conſider of what may be further neceſſary to put our ſelves in the beſt Poſture of Defence.

Your Excellencies may depend on our giving ſuch Diſpatch to the Publick Buſineſs as the Neceſſity of Affairs at preſent require, that we will grant ſuch Supplies as ſhall be wanting to ſupport his Majeſty's Eſtabliſhment with Honour, and readily concur in whatever elſe may be thought requiſite to render your Adminiſtration eaſie.

Their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices Anſwer.

Gentlemen,

WE return you our hearty Thanks for the Aſſurances you give us of ſupporting the Eſtabliſhment with Honour, and for the Promiſe of your beſt Endeavours to render our Adminiſtration eaſie. You may depend upon it, we have no other View but that of promoting his Majeſty's Service and the Intereſt of this Kingdom.

Edinburgh, Nov. 22. Letters of the 16th Inſtant from Aberdeen give an Account, that the Earl of Sutherland has poſſeſſed himſelf of the Town and Caſtle of Innerneſs, after an Action with the Rebels who were there: But they do not mention any other Particulars of that Action, than that —— Roſs, a Brother of Kilraock, was kill'd in it. They add, that the Earl has ſince advanced to the Town of Elgin, and taken Poſſeſſion of it.
